- In Allah's Judiciary system, annual submission of our deeds takes place on the 15th night of Sha'baan. For this very reason our holy Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to fast for most part of the month of Sha'baan. The least we can do is to fast for the 3 luminous days of this month which will fall on Sun 5th, Mon 6th and Tue 7th March.
- Although the whole month of Sha'baan is virtuous, however, the night between 14th and 15th of Sha'baan (from Magrib on Monday 6th March to the beginning time of Fajr on Tuesday 7th March) is even more blessed. It is well known by "Laylatul-Baraa'ah" or "Shab-e-Baraa'at" - (The Night of Freedom from Hellfire) During this night people are bestowed by Allah's very special mercy. Strong sinners on repentance are forgiven and granted exemption from the Fire of Hell. Callers for help are immediately supported and comforted, and all duas are responded to.
The Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) has said, "Indeed during the 15th night of Sha'baan, Allah descends to the first Heaven (in the manner He best knows) and forgives more people than the total number of hairs found on all the sheep of Banu Kalb (put together)." (Tirmidhi, P.156 – Ibn Majah, P.100)
Insha Allah the holy night will be celebrated with Qirat, Nasheeds and Bayan at YMA from 8pm till 10:30pm. Sisters are also welcome.
- Noteworthy dates:
15th night of Sha'baan = Monday 6th March | 15th day of Sha'baan = Tuesday 7th March
First Taraweeh = Wednesday 22nd March | 1st Ramadhan = Thursday 23rd March
Eid-ul-Fitr = Friday 21st April
