1. New Islamic Year (1st Muharram) = Sunday 7th July. Aashoora (10th Muharram) = Tuesday 16th July (Subject to moon sighting) "The best fasts after Ramadhan, are the fasts of Muharram- the month of Allah" (Hadeeth). "In return of Fasting of Aashoora, I am confident Allah will pardon the sins of the past year" (Hadeeth). Whilst it is desirable to fast for as many days as possible in the month of Muharram, it is Sunnah to fast on the occasion of Aashoora for two days, i.e., on the 9th & 10th OR on the 10th & 11th Muharram. Masjid Umar will celebrate the fasting on the 9th & 10th of Muharram ie on Monday 15th and Tuesday 16th July.
2. Please kindly let us all show loyalty to Allah جل جلاله and his Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم and keep marriage ceremonies in line with the Shariah only. . Present day ceremonies, wherein commands of Allah are violated most explicitly and publicly, are very potential inviters of Allah's wrath.
